Prioritising personal space

Now, more than ever, personal space plays an important part of everyday life. Our Neena side table helps you create your own personal space, bringing your laptop, food and drink within easy reach.

Made from moulded birch plywood, the cantilever design allows Neena to slide neatly under your chair to create a comfortable and flexible space.

Stability is provided by the solid steel base in a durable black powdercoated finish. There's even a subtle lip to stop your pen rolling off!
